God's Revenge Against HUSBAND RILLING!

WE have just printed a few hundred copies of the above pamphlet written by Rev. W. L. WEEMS, author of the "Life of Washington," said by some to have been the most peculiar writer of any age. This work is replete with interest, especially so to the citizens of this District, as it contains quite a fair "showing up" of the dark days and murderous deeds of old Edgefield a half cen-IF For sale at this Office. NOTICE TO SCHOOL TEACHERS. At a meeting of the Commissioners of Free Schools for Edgefield District, held the 3rd inst.,

the following Resolutions were adopted: 1st. That the beneficiaries of the Free School fund shall be divided into three separate and distinct classes as follows: That the first class shall consist of indigent fatherless children, and the children of such parents as

are unable to work for the support of their families, and who are wholly dependent upon their own bodily exertions for a support. That the second class shall consist of children whose parents are not owners of property beyond a horse, cow, &c., and the children of widows Life of Marion," and other lesser productions, and whose estate will not exceed Five Hundred Dollars in value. Provided however the children have not a separate estate beyond Five Hundred Dollars That the third class shall consist of children whose Fathers are not worth more than Five Hundred Dollars-and the children of such widow ladies as are not worth more than One Thousand Dollars, provided the children of such parents have not a separate estate of more than Five Hundred Dollars each. That in the event of a deficiency in funds, that the first and second classes shall always be paid for, to the exclusion of the third, and the first in exclusion of the second and third.

That the accounts shall be presented quarterly and that the probate shall set out in full the num-ber of days actually taught, as well as the num-ber of scholars sent, and the classes must be placed in their proper order, separate from each other so that they shall not be mixed on the account, and give at one glance the number of days and scholars taught in each class separate. Ladies will be required only to certify their ac-

Teachers must present their accounts to their pearest Commissioner, or to one acquainted with the circumstances of the applicants for the fund. And all the Commissioners of this Board are earnestly requested to observe strictly the foregoing Resolutions and be strict in their classification. Teachers will be required to endorse their names on the back of their accounts, with the number of days taught and amount due. JOHN LAKE, Ch'm.

PLAN OF THE LOTTERY.

The Numbers from 1 to 50,000, corresponding with those Numbers on the Tickets printed on separate slips of paper, are encircled with small tin tubes, and placed in one wheel.

The first 467 prizes, similarly printed and encircled, are placed in another wheel.

The wheels are then revolved, and a number is drawn from the wheel of numbers, and at the same time a prize is drawn from the other wheel. The number and prize drawn out are opened and exhibited to the audience, and registered by the Commissioners; the prize being placed against the number drawn. This operation is repeated until all the prizes are drawn out. prizes are drawn out.

Approximation Prizes .-- The two preceding and Approximation Prizes.—The two preceding and the two sneeceding Numbers to those drawing the first 7 Prizes will be entitled to the 28 Approximation Prizes. For example: If Ticket No. 11:250 draws the $60,000 Prize, those Tickets numbered 11:248, 11:249, 11:251, 11:252, will each be entitled to $400. If Ticket No. 550 draws the $9,000 Prize, those Tickets numbered 548, 549, 551, 552, will each be entitled to $300, and so on according to the above scheme.

The 5,000 Prizes of $20 will be determined by the last figure of the No, which draws the $50,000. For example, if the No, drawing the 50,000 prize ends with No. 1, then all the Tickets where the number ends in 1 will be entitled to $20. If the Number ends with Number 2, then all the Tickets where the Number ends in 2 will be entitled to $20, and so

Made by them, has not been surpassed by any Cloth made North or South. Recent extensive improvements and additions not only enable us to keep up the standard of the Goods, but to secure an early delivery of the same. Planters or others who may desire to avail themselves of this opportunity, and secure a first rate article at a moderate cost, have only to send us the Wool, washed clean in cold water. If sent dirty one half cent per yard extra is charged for washing. Burry Wool is not objectionable; the Burrs are removed by machinery. The name of the owner should be marked on all Packages sent us. Wool sent by any of the Rail Roads in Georgia, Alabama or South Carolina, to the Augusta Depot, marked Richmond Factory, (and owner's name also) will be regularly and promptly received, and the cloth, when made, returned to the points directed. Each parcel is made up in the turn received, hence an early delivery is always desirable. All instructions to
